

Journeys For Learning

Led by Janet Marshall: teacher, storyteller & actress

In-school workshops for key stages 1, 2 & 3

Bring Your History, R.E. English & Creative Arts
Topics Alive with a Half or Full Day Workshop.

Janet's wide-ranging skills & experience of teaching all ages through storytelling, drama & creative activities has spanned a variety of settings: Schools, St Paul's Cathedral, York Minster, The Royal Albert Hall, Norwich Cathedral & City Museums.

You will not be disappointed!

What teachers say about Janet:

'The children were absolutely enthralled by your manner & story telling. The songs were well used. Children felt comfortable asking you lots of questions which you answered carefully. The amount of detail they've recalled today is brilliant due to such wonderful storytelling that linked R.E. concepts and real-life history.'
K. Lee, Lt. Melton Primary School.

'Janet, the character actress was a highlight and kept all children engaged and active. Very impressed!' More than matched my expectations'. J. Savage, Whitewoman Lane Primary School.

'Totally amazing! Brilliant story telling & activities. It brought our History to life in a special way. C.B. West Lynn Primary School.
