

This comes with the warmest of wishes for the new term & calendar year from JOURNEYS FOR LEARNING.

November & December were very busy and fun times were had in a number of Norfolk, Suffolk & Yorkshire schools, delivering a variety of History & RE/PSHE in-school workshops.

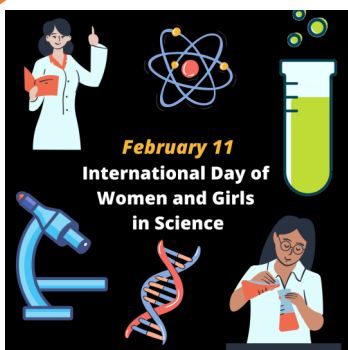

Interfaith week, World Faiths Days, Divali, Advent & Christmas took centre stage for Key stage 1&2 classes. Huge thanks to all who took part & welcomed me warmly.

All of these are up for grabs for 2023, plus the many options for History or bespoke RE on my website:

WORLD WILDLIFE DAY 3 MARCH

DOING ANIMALS FOR A TOPIC?

Why not bring this international day of celebration alive with a great workshop full of visuals, stories, drama & dance about animals. It can be delivered during other months too.

14th February marks Valentine's day. Here is a great RE opportunity...

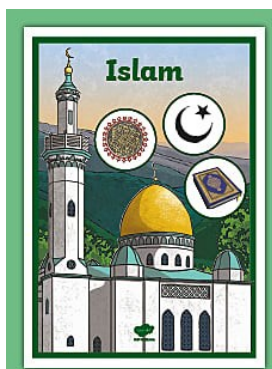

Why not have a day in school that multiple classes can engage with, all about the concept of love in Christianity (what did Jesus teach about love? Parables/Incarnation and more. A great lead up to Lent & Easter.

Explore how the sacred texts of faiths across the world view love in their teaching. Inclusion of world views such as Humanism too.

WHY NOT HAVE A DAY IN SCHOOL ALL ABOUT POETRY?

In these workshops children will experience poetry of many types from around the world as they recite, bring to life through drama & write their own. The workshop will bring alive what poetry is all about as an art form & skill. Available in other months too.

NEW... Experience Islam Day.

Lots of artefacts, clothing, food, visuals and story to explore what it is like to belong to this world faith.

I look forward to connecting with you this year! Best wishes, Janet.
